LOT 119 for auction and donated by Jane Scrivener

MFA, post-16 and adult art teacher. "Drawing is my first love and starting point. Our bodies/ourselves, are the vehicles through which we navigate our world, complex, resilient, unique and challenging. All my work derives from the human figure – usually portrayed in isolation. I experiment to create textured surfaces and layered images looking for the aesthetic in shape and space, natural forms and the flow of the drawn line, but I also embrace the absurdities of life, our internal conversations and the conflict between what we reveal and what we conceal of ourselves to others."

The Chippenham Chimera is finely crafted surrealist fantastic beast that is part bat (mammal) part bird (avian), part ...what? Does it symbolize the biodiversity under threat from urban sprawl? Or the cheerful optimism and determination to be heard, of the people in the community? Its former home was a nearby independent girls' school.

Save Chippenham Art Auction INFORMATION SHEET

Who, what, when, where, why?

WHO – Many supporters of Save Chippenham, the new campaign against urban sprawl, have worked free of charge to organise, promote and bring you this fundraising event.

WHAT – The auction includes a wide range of high-quality works of art, dating from the early 19th century to this year, kindly donated by local artists and owners. Four works will also be raffled independently of the auction process.

WHEN – The auction is being held on Sunday, 19th December 2021 from 11.30am – 6pm.

WHERE – The Cause Arts and Music Venue, The Causeway, Chippenham, SN15 3DD. This has a very fine Victorian Gothic former Methodist church Auditorium, capacity 150 and with an upper balcony, a roomy Hall entirely wheelchair-accessible, with adjacent disabled toilet, and kitchen facilities, other toilets, etc. There is plentiful car parking nearby.

WHY – All proceeds will go towards saving Chippenham from urban sprawl – excessive greenfield development. The urgent need is to raise funds for the High Court challenge to Wiltshire Council's huge "Future Chippenham" housing and commercial development on farmland to the South of Chippenham, with a road scheme using Homes England funding.
